The LONDON TIMES, in speaking of this great moral drama, mentions a fact to which the provincial press of Great British and freshand has given confirmation.

A clerk, who had absconded from Liverpool with 22.500, the property of his employers, and after visiting many places, arrived at Birmingham about five o'cleck, and aftar laking some refrashments went to the theatre, to while away as hour. As it happened, the piece which was being performed on the occasion of this visit was THE TICKET OF LEAVE MAN.

and the guilty man seems to have drawn a moral from the representation; for when the scene in which the interview between Hawkshaw, the detective and the "Ticket of Leave Man" took place, Parker, the clerk, became so affected that he went out of the theatre, got three envelopes, and sent £1.500 back to his employers.

Ohl the prophetic vision of Shakspeare.

That guilty creatures sitting at a play Have by the very cunning of the some.

Been struck so to the soul, that presently They have proclaimed their malefactions.
